STETTLER YOUTH HELD BY POLICE IN MASS KILLING

STETTLER.—Royal Canadian Mounted Police Sunday night questioned a 22-year-old man in connection with the slaying of seven other members of his family in this farming community 90 miles southeast of Edmonton.

Investigators questioned Robert Raymond Cook shortly after the bodies of his father, mother, three brothers and two sisters were found bludgeoned to death in a grease pit under a pile of car tires in the garage at the rear of the family home.

The victims were iedntified as Ray Cook, a 54-year-old garage mechanic, his wife Daisy Mae, 37, Gerfald Ray, aged nine, Patrick William, eight, Christopher Frederick, seven, Kathy Vern, five and Linda Mae aged three.

All died from head wounds inflicted by a blunt instrument. Police said the slayings took place sometime between Thursday night and early Sunday and it was not a case of "murder-suicide."

No motive for the mass killings could be immediately determined.

Provincial coroner Max Cantor immediately ordered an inquest.

The community of Stettler was the scene of another mass killing three years ago when John E. Clark, a member of the legislative assembly, killed his wife, his four children, a farm hand and a visiting sailor and then committed suicide.

HYLO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SEE VARIED FILM PROGRAM

HYLO — The Hylo and District Chamber of Commerce meeting was well attended on Wednesday, June 24, in the Hylo School and Noral and Venice were well represented.

The Chamber of Commerce has been working diligently, under the active leadership of President Michael Grandinetti. Already the matter of grading certain parts of roads has been attended to. The location of the nuisance ground, a necessity in every community, is awaiting the approval of the Inspector.

Information in regards to the elevator was received and the matter was under a lengthy discussion at this time.

Following the business part of the meeting we had the pleasure of seeing films which were taken and shown by Mr. Michael Maccagno, MLA. One was about the Hylo and District Chamber of Commerce at work.

This took place on the farm of Mr. Joe Bonifacio, at Venice, who was ill and couldn't get his farm work done. Eight tractors were needed to disc 65 acres, plow 20 and seed 85, all in a day, but 12 tractors materialized in no time and the job was done even sooner. On behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Grandinetti extended his sincere thanks to everyone for being so willing to help at a time when they no doubt were busy with their own springwork.

Another interesting film showed all the members of the Legislative Assembly as they gathered for their session

The one about Queen Elizabeth II when she arrived in Banff also proved to be enjoyable. Mr. Maccagno was fortunate in being able to attend that time and take all the pictures.

Enjoyable also was the film on the 1958 Edmonton Exhibition Parade as well as a number of other films.

Thanks were extended to Mr. Maccagno for taking time off to attend our meeting and showing these films, who informed us it was a pleasure.

Coffee and cake concluded a very enjoyable evening.

"We prevent a child from putting poison in his stomach—and then poison his mind with our prejudices."

WITHIN A FEW WEEKS:

Albertans Soon To Taste New Powdered Milk Made By Carnation

Albertans will soon taste a new instant pasteurized powdered skim milk made by the Carnation Company Ltd., T. E. Lang, vice-president, said at an Edmonton press conference.

"The risks of entering such a keenly competitive market were great," said Mr. Lang. "Our decision came after we considered the drawbacks of old-fashioned powdered milks . . . their poor solubility, caking and inferior flavor. And, as we all know, the experience of service men with the product during the war did not exactly open up a big, new market."

"Any new powdered skim milk, to be acceptable, had to overcome these handicaps, said Mr. Lang. "We believe Carnation Instant has done this, with some important extra advantages. And let me make this point at the outset. This is a modern dairy product, made of top-grade fresh whole milk. The milk is supplied to our plant at Alexandria by dairymen from that area. In the processing, only the water and butterfat are removed. Nothing—nothing is added. Instant contains all the proteins, B vitamins and calcium, the important nutrients of fresh milk.

"Carnation Instant has several distinct advantages from the nutrition standpoint. It contains less than half the calories of whole milk, 80 per eight-ounce glass. This is particularly important these days when so many people are figure and weight conscious. So, by drinking Instant, you get the essential food elements without the added calories. And forget about the old powdered milk flavor. The fresh, natural taste of Instant makes it an ideal beverage."

"It's easy to get extra protein and vitamins by merely increasing the proportion of Instant when reconstituting with water. This fortification is especially valuable for growing teenagers who need these essential nutrients."

"One of the main objections to the old-fashioned powdered milks was their poor mixing qualities," continued vice-president Lang. "In cannister "A" here, I am going to pour some of the old-fashioned product. Into this cannister, I will pour some Carnation Instant. I think the demonstration speaks for itself. Thanks to the special "Magic Crystals" process, Carnation Instant mixes in seconds and there is no sedimentation. Furthermore, it will not cake or harden while stored in the cupboard, and it always pours freely."

"Instant produces excellent results in cooking and baking and no special recipes are necessary. Another unique advantage is that Instant can be whipped. A delicious, low-calorie whipped topping costs only one cent per serving. And it has two-thirds less calories than whipped cream."

While we regard Instant as a quality product of high nutritional value, we recognize its important economy appeal. Costing as little as ten cents a quart, it is one of the best buys today in terms of food value.

"In introducing Carnation Instant," explained Mr. Lang, we hope to increase total milk consumption, as has been the case in the United States, and thus make a substantial contribution to the Canadian dairy industry and to general health. Carnation Company Limited, in its forty - three years' existence, is proud to have played a role in the economic growth of Canada. In addition to the large, new Instant plant at Alexandria, we operate evaporated milk plants at Aylmer, Ontario and Sherbrooke, Quebec. We also make our evaporated milk cans at Alymer. The evaporated milk plants are served by receiving milk stations at Kerwood, Homesville, and St. Mary's Ontario, and at Waterloo, Quebec. More than 5,600 dairy farmers throughout Canada sell their milk to us. Four hundred persons are employed at our various units and the annual payroll amounts to more than one million dollars. About six and a half million dollars are spent for materials and services."

"We at Carnation are enthusiastic about this new product, " concluded Mr. Lang. "We believe it serves a real need with its convenience, flavor, versatility and economy. With the trend toward lower fat and lower calories, Instant skim milk will become increasingly popular. And we expect greater use for drinking as people become acquainted with its fresh flavor."

No Pay TV For City Yet

It will be sometime yet before Edmonton viewers can sit back at home and watch a first rate movie at a reasonable rate, city Famous Players Theatre managers say.

In Toronto, pay TV is to be given a trial run this fall by the Famous Player Corporation and if the experiment succeeds, it is believed it would also succeed in single channel areas.

No price has yet been determined for current movies, live sports and other features not carried on free television which will be offered. Toronto was chosen as the starting city in Canada because of the many television stations in the area—three in nearby Buffalo, one in Hamilton and one in Toronto.

Edmonton Woman Granted House

OTTAWA—Title to a home in Edmonton was granted here by the Supreme Court of Canada to a woman who has a judicial separation from her husband.

The court, in granting title to Mrs. Helene M. P. Jackman, upset a decision of the Alberta Appeal Court and restored a judgment of the Alberta Supreme Court.

The Alberta Supreme Court gave Mrs. Jackman title over her husband, Cecil W. Jackman. However the Appeal Court granted her title to the property as trustee for herself and her husband.

Stop Sign Bylaw

City council has called a special session to put some meaning into Edmonton's "Stop" signs.

Aldermen are being asked to approve a bylaw authorizing the signs, in accordance with a district court ruling last week by Chief held council could not delegate Judge Nelles V. Buchanan, who this power to commissioners, as has been the practice.

The decision for the bylaw was made at a meeting of city and police officials, concerned about the court ruling which made "Stop" signs invalid.

In future, erection and transfer of signs probably will be covered by bylaws, according to assistant city solicitor Harry Wilson.

Health Through Chiropractic

HEADACHES

Nature has a most efficient method of warning us that there is something wrong somewhere. Its warning signal is Pain.

In many cases we know the cause of the trouble by the location of the pain—in the ear, eye, abdomen or elsewhere. Not so with headaches—they can be caused by almost any disturbance anywhere in the body.

Our first reaction to pain is to find something that will kill it quickly, and put us at our ease again. It's really not a very sensible thing to do, but we do it day after day. It's too easy these days to tell Nature to keep quiet and not disturb us with news we do not want to hear. By a headache Nature is telling us that some part of the body is not functioning properly, and the sensible thing to do is to find out what has gone wrong, and why.

The nervous system holds the key to health since it controls the functioning of every gland, organ and tissue cell in the body. Chiropractic is the science which deals exclusively with the operation of the nervous system. Scientific instruments have been developed to aid the Chiropractor in discovering if and where any section of the nervous system is not operating fully and properly. That's why Chiropractic is so effective in searching out and correcting the cause of the most common ailment of all—headaches.

Good health does not come in bottles. It comes only from within, and only when your entire nervous system is functioning properly. Next time you have a headache see your Chiropractor.

Ella Simon Married In Pretty Double Ring Ceremony June 20

HYLO — The Evangelical Free Church of Hylo was decorated with a lovely red, white and pink rose trelis and white and pink streamers on Saturday, June 20, when Miss Ella Francis Simon, and Mr. John William Owchar exchanged marriage vows.

Rev. S. L. Munro officiated at the double ring ceremony for the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Simon and the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Owchar.

Mrs. G. McEachern presided at the organ and Miss Johnson of Grassland sang two beautiful solos while the register was signed.

Given in marriage by her father the radiant bride chose a floor-length gown of traditional white nylon net over shiny satin featuring two tiers of lace ruffles over the billowy skirt. A pretty peter pan-collared lace bolero was worn over the fitted bodice featuring lace lily point sleeves. The dainty nylon tulle fingertip circular veil was held in place by a nylon tricot tiara gathered to crown and shimmering irridescent sequins.

Her only jewellery were pearl earrings, gift of the groom, and she carried a cascade of red and white velvet roses with white streamers and red buds attached.

Mrs. Richard Meardi, cousin of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a cocktail-length gown of shrimp nylon net over taffeta featuring a dainty short sleeved lace bolero. Her accessories were all white and she wore a corsage of white roses.

There were three bridesmaids. Miss Zorina Zalewsky took the place of Miss Evelyn Poholski who unfortunately was unable to attend, due to illness. Both are cousins of the groom. Miss Zalewsky wore a floor-length bouffant gown of yellow net over taffeta featuring a lace short-sleeved, Peter Pan collared bolero over the lace fitted bodice. Her headdress was a crown of yellow ruffled net with dainty roses to match and she carried a nosegay of yellow appleblossoms centered with white baby's breath and trimmed with fern.

Miss Marjorie Lozinski, also cousin of the groom, chose a soft mint-green nylon net over taffeta gown with short sleeved bolero to match. Her bouffant skirt featured a dainty ruffle with a rose at each upper point as it swirled up and down the skirt. She wore a similar styled headdress to match her gown and carried a nosegay of pink appleblossoms centered with white baby's breath.

Miss Carol Keehn wore a floor-length gown of coral net over taffeta featuring a lace short-sleeved, Peter Pan collar bolero at match. Her headdress was blue and also similarly styled and she carried a nose gay of blue apleblossoms centered with white baby's breath and trimmed with green fern.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Nick Owchar, and his cousins, Messrs. Julie Owchar, Paul Poholski, Richard Meardi, who were all attired in white dinner jackets, similar to the groom. Ushers were Mr. Mike Owchar, brother of the groom, and Mr. Wally Tichonuk.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Simon chose a navy crepe dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. B. Owchar, the groom's mother, chose a trim navy linen suit, with white accessories and wore a red rose corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony camera bulbs flashed everywhere as the bridal couple made their way out of the church. After the congratulations were extended the young couple drove off in the bridal car to Boyle where photographs were taken. They were accompanied by the matron-of-honor and Mr. Richard Meardi. The bridesmaids and groom's attendants followed in two other cars.

The reception for over 200 guests was held in the Hylo Hall which was attractively decorated with pink and white streamers, alternating to form a pinwheel over the bridal table with three white bells in its centre.

The bride's table was draped with white bridal cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake recorated with roses and a miniature bridal couple at the top. Beautiful bouquets of waxed red and yellow roses, tiger lilies and sprigs of lily-of-the-valley decorated the tables.

After grace was said, Rev. Munroe proposed the toast to the bride and groom to which the groom replied.

After the reception a presentation of many lovely gifts and some $200 in cash followed. Then dancing was enjoyed with music by Mr. and Mrs. John Shmyr and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cross of Westlock.

A buffet supper was served at midnight and festivities continued the next day when lunch and refreshments were served to relatives and friends who came to look at the many lovely gifts and to enjoy dancing in the open pavilion at the home of the groom's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Owchar will make their home at Bonnyville.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Boyko and Mike of Venice; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gargus; Mr. Carl Ganassin; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lessard; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stratichuk, all of Lac la Biche; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shmyr of Bonnyville; Mrs. Eva Maloney of Billings, Mont., U.S.A.; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Verboom; Miss Arlene Caren; Mr. Larry Rayment; Mr. Eddy Rayment; Mr. and Mrs. Don Broder, all of Edmonton; Miss Joanne Giacobbo; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bezpalko; Mrs. A. LAC LA BICHE PUPILS WIN PRIZES FOR SAFETY ESSAY

EDMONTON — The Alberta Safety Council have announced the winners for their essay contest sponsored among the school children in Alberta. The contest was divided into two classes — one on Highway Safety and the other on Electrical Safety.

There were two winners in the Lac la Biche School Division. They are Linda Onciul, Grade 6, Lac la Biche School & her essay was on "Highway Safety." The other winner was Lynne Breau, of Grade 8, Lac la Biche and her assay was on "Electrical Safety." Both these essays have been reprinted here in the Herald.

ELECTRICAL SAFETY
By Lynne Breau, Gr. 8,
Lac la Biche School.

Louise was preparing to take her bath. She filled the tub, brought some soap, and last of all, to her mother's dismay, she brought the radio with her.

"Louise, I wish you wouldn't bring the radio into the bathroom," said Mrs. Breen. "You know how dangerous it is."

"Oh, I'll be careful." replied Louise flippantly, as she connected the radio and turned it on. She got in and pulled the curtain around the tub.

She had been in about ten minutes when someone knocked and came in.

"Louise, can I borrow your lipstick?" asked Jean, Louise's younger sister.

"What did you say?" yelled Louise. With the radio blaring out, both girls couldn't make out what the other was saying.

"Okay, if you're going to be stubborn and won't answer, I'll use it anyway!" cried Jean hotly, as she stormed out the door.

Louise, curious to know what her sister wanted, leaned over to shut off the radio. As she went to turn it off, her wet hand accidentally touched a wire protruding from the back of it. She received such a shock that she slumped back, lifeless.

When Louise did not come out of the bathroom, her mother got worried. She went into the bathroom and saw her daughter lying submerged in the water, dead! Louise had been electrocuted!

Louise might still be alive today if she had been more careful with the use of electricity. Remember, electricity is not a plaything.

HIGHWAY SAFETY
By Linda Onciul, Gr. 6,
Lac la Biche School.

The Citizens' Journal was the first to announce the shocking accident of the rat-racing gang of teenagers. As I picked it up and read it slowly, I pictured the accident as it must have happened.

Two young teenage boys were killed while driving carelessly through a narrow curved section of the road on Highway Forty-eight. They were travelling without using headlights on the previous evening. The moon had been shining quite brightly and to them was considered sufficient. Two vehicles, approaching from opposite directions, and each going approximately fifty miles an hour, collided with such a terrific force, that the teenage driver of one car was pierced through the stomach by a piece of heavy metal, dislodged, during the impact. The other teenage driver had been killed instantly, being pinned under the steering wheel as the front of the car folded up on him.

When the Mounted Police arrived at the scent of the accident, the dusty air mingled with the smell of blood.

The vehicles were total wrecks, one being wrapped around a power pole and having to be cut away with cutting torches.

When the police pulled the victims from the wreckage, one girl was in serious condition, having severe head and chest injuries. Fortunately the other boy and two girls suffered only from shock and minor injuries, and recovered rapidly.

As soon as possible, the teenage boys would be buried, and young and old would remember the accident for many years.

This accident could have been prevented if the reckless teenagers had been using their lights, hadn't been driving so fast, and had been aware of the dangerous road ahead of them.
